

news release

1094 (City of Ely) Squadron
Air Training Corps

Cadet Centre, Heaton Drive, Ely, Cambs. CB7 4RS

Ref : 1094/08/02

24 August 2006

Good Results for Ely Air Cadets.

Recently Cadets and staff of 1094 (Ely) Squadron of the Air Training Corps were successful in the Aircraft Modelling & Recognition competition held by Bedfordshire & Cambridgeshire Wing of the Air Training Corps.

Cadet Ben Montgomery gained third place with his model of a Rockwell B1b Lancer. Civilian Instructor Steve Coulson won the staff competition with his model of a P40 Warhawk of the USAF.

Cadet Ben Montgomery won the individual Aircraft Recognition Competition and is selected as part of the team to represent Bedfordshire & Cambridgeshire at the Regional competition in September.

These results are the culmination of their work at the Squadron over the past year.

Based in Heaton Drive the Squadron is actively seeking new recruits and has an open evening scheduled for Wednesday 27 September at the Squadron HQ starting at 8 pm.

The Squadron provides a wide range of activities for its cadets including flying, gliding, rifle shooting, hill walking, abseiling, archery & sailing to name but a few.

For further information please contact admin@1094sqnatc.org or ring 01353 665331.

Picture:- Civilian Instructor Steve Coulson receives his award.